Big data

With the support of the EDIH Network, Constanța County successfully:

Implemented an application that facilitates data collection, incorporating the format ordered by the Ministry of Education.

Benefits

Fast and efficient data process

Constanța County is the only county with a comprehensive solution that automatically processes and interprets the collected data, enabling immediate access to seven tailored reports.

Multi-campaign analysis

The county can conduct multiple data collection campaigns and perform time-based analyses of the bullying phenomenon, allowing for the evaluation of measures over time.

180

schools with data collected so far

17,000+

pupils surveyed in the county

Implementing this application enhances the ability to respond to incidents of bullying with great speed and precision, leading to a reduction in bullying in the near future.

The app fosters a safer and more supportive educational environment, with potential long-term economic benefits as students experience more opportunities for success.
